Kent Lewis Fritz was born on June 3, 1935 in Uehling, Nebraska to Marvin and Luetta (Uehling) Fritz. Kent was injured at birth resulting in his being deaf. The family moved to Omaha when Kent was of school age, so he could attend Nebraska School for the Deaf. He graduated from NSD in 1955. On April 1, 1952 the family moved to Oshkosh for Marvin's new position with the bank. Kent worked at the Garden County News.

He was married to Helen Fritz and they worked together at the papers in Oshkosh and Julesburg.

Kent enjoyed golfing, playing cards with friends and watched any sport that was on TV.

Kent is survived by cousins, Kirk, Bruce, Fred, and Sandy; aunt, Rosemary Hansen; Glenda and his neighbors and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and his wife, Helen.
