

Howard Lester Cumpston, Jr.

1935 or 1936—November 28, 2020

NSDAA got word that Howard Cumpston, Jr. passed away somewhere in the New York state last November 28, 2020. There is no obituary for him yet.

Howard attended Nebraska School for the Deaf from October 11, 1941, to May 1954 when he was sent home. His parents moved to California. He married a deaf California lady. They had two or three children. They eventually were divorced. He later married Camilla Carrillo of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. They lived in Sunnyvale, California. Howard worked for Toyota Company for many years. After his retirement, they bought a motor home, and they toured the United States. Due to his failing health, he moved to New York state where his daughter took care of him until his passing away.
