July 21, 1979 — December 10, 2023

Kormelia Nicole King was born in Omaha, Nebraska on July 21, 1979 to Sharon Renee King-Brewer and James Kevin Cooper.

Kormelia graduated from Nebraska School of the Deaf in 1998 and proceeded to obtain an associate degree from Metro Tech Community College in Early Childhood Education in 2002. Kormelia was also very fluent in ASL (American Sign Language), teaching her family and friends her means of communication.

Throughout her life, Kormelia achieved many self-setting goals such as being a part of basketball, volleyball, swim teams, cheerleaders, Girl Scouts, and most of all making Prom Queen her high school year. Amongst her many accomplishments, Kormelia loved to sing, dance, and travel.

One of her favorite singers/performers was Michael Jackson. When a Micheal Jackson song came on the radio or television, she would stop what she was doing and all attention was on him. Yolanda Adams was another artist Kormelia enjoyed listening to.
