Antines “NuNu” Davis; a Black ASL Comedian

She lives in Baltimore, MD, a devoted fan of the Raven football team. She grew up in Baltimore, MD until in 1989 when she moved to Minnesota. She discovered her potential through performing a signing in ASL. She won the Miss Deaf Minnesota pageant in 1991 and was the first Black Deaf contestant. She graduated from Maryland School for the Deaf. She then enrolled at Gallaudet University and transferred to Bible College in Minneapolis, MN with a degree in Deaf Studies. She has been involved with many different organizations and activities with the Deaf community. NuNu states, “I am so proud to be a black person because my heart goes out to people and children of colors.” She travels around the county performing in BLACK ASL.
