

Interesting Fact:

On a classic, warm Saturday afternoon on Oct. 14, 1911, a light breeze, sunshine and autumn colors greeted the fans at the field at 24th and Evans Streets as the University of Omaha (UNO) kicked off its first football season ever with a 25-0 victory over Nebraska Deaf & Dumb Institute (NSD).

Wow! Can you believe it? NSD football players played with college football players.

How cool was that?

University of Omaha (UNO) First football team, 1911