

Booing to Members-

Where did Halloween start? Halloween has been celebrated in Ireland since 100 A.D. Their first vegetables carved for Halloween were turnips. Halloween became popular in the United States in the 19th century after Irish immigrants brought their traditions and celebrations with them.

--NSDAA

Wish you all a Spooky Halloween from the NSDAA Board.

President Amy Willman
as a PUNK

Vice President Angie Walz
as a MIME

Secretary Peggy Scherling
as a MARY POPPINS

Treasurer Debra Weyers
as a TROLL

