

TIDBITS

June 2013
Volume 1 Issue 1

Amy Willman, '87, published a book; Amy Signs, which she co-wrote with her mother.

Doug Collicott, '86, and his wife, Lynda, adopted a deaf boy, Andrei, from Bulgaria.

Tricia Tighe, '87, was appointed as the Lincoln Association of the Deaf President 2013-2015.

Travis Guettler, '92, was an actor in an ASL Film, "The Hard Man".

Susan Trumble, '83, became a great aunt for the first time to a nephew.

Debra, '79, and Lloyd, '80, Weyers are going to be a first time grandparents this coming in November.

Jonathan Arteaga, '98, became a first Deaf postmaster working at the Post Office in Greenwood, Nebraska.

Karen Weverka, '67, has worked for the Department of Motor Vehicle for the past 35 years and still working.

Peggy and Roy Scherling, '75, are proud parents of their daughter, Johanna, who graduated from Iowa School for the Deaf as a Valedictorian.

Vicki (Steinhauer) Campbell, '96, and her husband, James, will have their third child this coming in October.

Chad Dixon, '90 and Meredith Staats, '93, celebrated the birthday of their son, Thad Jerome Dixon, who turned one on January 16.

Kelli Thomas, '87, is a proud parent of her daughter, Arissa, who graduated from high school in Spirit Lake, Iowa.

David Arteaga, '05, and his wife, Amanda gave a birth to a beautiful daughter, Hannah Marianne Arteaga, on May 15, 2013.

Pamela and Randall Hill, '79, celebrated their 33 years of marriage. They were married on May 31, 1980.

Kathleen Hruza, '47, and Laverne Haynes, '52, were crowned as Queen and King of Nebraska Association of the Deaf.

100 Years Ago... Class of 1913
Nebraska School for the Deaf

Pictured standing: James V. Jelinek, Eugene Fry, Bessie E. Lewis, Harold G. Newman, and sitting: Effie Weseen, Instructor J.W. Sowell, Superintendent F.W. Booth, Ella M. Cowen.