1. I was born in Louisiana in 1970.
2. I was quite a unique individual- I don't have a navel, and I broke my left arm three times in one year. I have more scars and broken bones than any of my siblings, and spent more time in hospitals than they did.
3. I am the second of five children in my family. My sister Debbie and I are less than a year apart in age.
4. As a military child, I lived in Texas, Alaska, California, Illinois, and finally Nebraska.
5. I enrolled at NSD in December 1978. I enjoyed being a cheerleader and playing volleyball.
6. I was well-known for selling gingerbread houses at NSD every Christmas, with my family making around 200 houses annually.

7. I grew up loving camping and hiking.
8. I enjoyed road trips and have visited 34 states so far; I'm looking forward to visit all 50 states.

9. I traveled to a few countries in Europe, a few cities in Mexico, and Jamaica.
10. My grandfather went to WWI and looted a Nazi flag. I inherited it and have it in my safe. It still has a smell of war.

11. My childhood favorite color was PURPLE. I still wear clothes of the purple color family. Purple makes my hazel eyes pop jade green.
12. I am a daughter of Santa Claus. My father was a mall Santa Claus. He was a clown, too.

13. I attended Gallaudet University and received both a BA and an MA in Deaf Education. I am the only member of my family to have an MA degree.
14. My ancestor was a captain of the Speedwell ship. Its destination was supposed to be America, but it got leaked and was replaced with Mayflower.
15. My mom dressed me up as Sally in "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" for a play.
