Interview with Mary E. (Haynes) Miller, Class of 1953

- 1. What did you enjoy most while at NSD? Our class went to Shirley (Barton) Meyer's farm for supper and to celebrate one of our class sponsor's birthday.
- 2. What word do you find unpleasant? "Revenge."
- 3. Who is your favorite role model? Doris Day. She was an actress, but I always admired her.
- 4. What is your favorite dish? Ice cream, especially chocolate.
- 5. Did you and your classmates go on a senior trip? If so, where did you go, and who were your class sponsors? Yes, we called it "Skip Day." We went to Plattsmouth for breakfast, then to Nebraska City to visit the School for the Blind and Arbor Lodge, then to Lincoln, and we had our lunch at the park. After that, we visited Robber's Cave, Morrill Hall, and the State Capitol building. We had our supper at the Lincoln Hotel and then drove to Omaha. We stopped at the Orpheum in Omaha to watch a movie, and then we walked back to the NSD campus. It was a day full of activities, and I remember we were all very tired by the end of the day.
